» 22 to 31 August 2019 in City Hotel, in Prizren.

“Is 'zdravo' all you know in Serbian,
and want to learn more?
Is 'faleminderit' all you know in Albanian,
and want to know more?”

Academy of Language and Culture

Are you active, ready for a challenge, living in the areas covered by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo or OSCE Mission to Serbia and want to make a change in your community by overcoming the language barrier? If so, we encourage you to apply to the Academy of Language and Culture!

Interested? Great! Find out more!

The OSCE Mission in Kosovo and OSCE Mission to Serbia invite young women and men with interests in learning about each other's language and culture to apply for the Academy of Language and Culture.

About the Academy of Language and Culture

Academy of Language and Culture provides a platform for young women and men from Prishtinë/Priština and Belgrade to overcome barriers in communication, deconstruct stereotypes, and to set a baseline for dialogue. The Academy aims at enhancing communication and building a network between communities through language courses and various cultural and educational workshops and activities.

Qualifications

The call is open to young women and men between the ages of 16 and 22¹ from the geographical regions covered by the OSCE Mission in Kosovo and the OSCE Mission to Serbia who demonstrate genuine interests in voluntarism, community work and advocacy. Knowledge of English language is required, since it would serve as a common language. Previous knowledge of Serbian/Albanian for youth from Prishtinë/Priština and Belgrade is not mandatory.

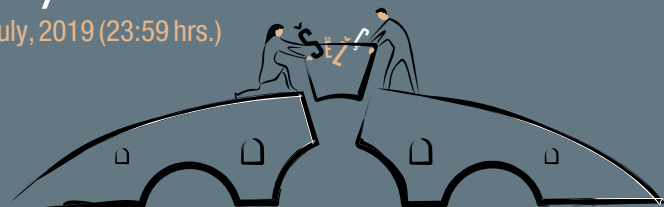

Application

For additional information, please visit the OSCE Mission in Kosovo homepage <https://www.osce.org/mission-in-kosovo>, OSCE Mission to Serbia homepage <https://www.osce.org/mission-to-serbia> or the Dialogue Academy Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/dialogueacademyforyoungwomen/>.
