About the OSCE Dialogue Academy

Since 2012, the OSCE Mission in Kosovo and the OSCE Mission to Serbia have been organizing a series of meetings bringing together prominent women from Prishtinë/Priština and Belgrade. The process known as the “Follow Us” Initiative aims at fostering contact and dialogue between the two societies focusing on common issues of concern related to gender equality and women empowerment. As part of identified priority areas for joint action, participants agreed to support the empowerment of young women from both societies through education and dialogue initiatives. With this aim, five editions of the OSCE Dialogue Academy were held from 2015 to 2019, bringing together young women activists from Prishtinë/Priština and Belgrade, to learn about women in politics and dialogue. The Academy also aims to encourage joint actions of young women activists from both societies to advocate for advancement of women's rights and trust building in the region.
